

Guidelines for Writing the Lab Report

The report has to include:

- Title page - Including: course number, lab title, student names, student IDs, Date the report was submitted.
- Abstract - A summary of the contents of the lab report.
- Procedure of methods or approach to the design or/and conduct of the experiments. Try to be concise.
- Diagrams - Include all flowchart, block diagram used in the lab if any.
- Results - All lab results should be included in your report.
- Code - Include any code used in the lab. The code must be commented properly.
- Discussion and answer to lab questions if any.
- Conclusion or any other relevant ideas.